THE GREATEST
MEDICAL DISCOVERY
Of the Age.

KENNEDY of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures
A VERY KIND OF HUMOR;
From the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both blunder humor) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a running mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two to three bottles will clear the system of boils.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.
Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.
Three to four bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Two bottles are warranted to cure sore eyes and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.
Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of ringworm.
Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of rheumatism.
Three to eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula.
A perfect cure is warranted when the system of diabetes is taken.
The reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humors. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two reasons about this herb that appear to me mysterious: first, that it grows in our pastures, in some parts quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846; second, I should cure all kinds of humors in order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it, and sold about fifteen bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever known like it.

There is a universal praise of it from all parts of the country.

From my own practice I always kept it secretly for my own practice, but since its introduction as a general medicine great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected. Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which always considered incurable, have been cured with a few bottles. Or, what a mercy if it will prove true in all cases of that awful malady—there are a few who have seen more of it than I have. Now of several cases of Dropsy, all of them have been cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver Sick Headache Dyspepsia, Asthma, and Ague Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Kidneys and particularly in Diseases of the Kidneys, it has done more good than any medicine ever known.

A change of diet ever necessary—eat the best the market can get, and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults one tablespoon full per day—Children over ten years do one tablespoon—children from five to eight years, two teaspoons full—no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels each day.

Principal Office for the State of Maine and the British Provinces, is at the Drug and Medicine Establishment of H H HAY, 154 1/2 Marlboro' Street, Portland, where he will receive letters to be addressed. Sold by respectable Druggists throughout the United States and British Provinces.

PRICE $1.00.

CALL FOR A STATE CONVENTION.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MAINE.

The time is near when you will be called upon to give your suffrages for the men to whom will be committed the care and direction of civil affairs in the State and Nation. A free people will ever sacredly prize the right and power of selecting their own rulers. Whenever they cease to value this privilege, their liberties are without safeguards and the government under which they live cannot be distant from certain ruin. To the patriotism and heroic spirit of our ancestors, and to the favor of a benignant Providence, are we indebted for the best system of government in the world. Only by a blindness and degeneracy that would be shameful in the extreme, can we be indifferent to the preservation of the inestimable boon which has been committed to our charge. To guard our Liberties and Laws from abuse and peril, is a duty no less imperative than to strike down the sceptre of kings, and drive the invader from our shores.

At no period since its establishment, has this government been in such imminent peril as at the present time. A direct attack on the form of government is not more dangerous to its perpetuity than a gross perversion and abuse of its powers, to purposes altogether foreign to its spirit and original design. Far safer would it bear the violence of a powerful external foe, than to withstand the workings of an enemy which insidiously finds its way into all the places of honor, power and trust, and bends the Constitution and Laws to ends fatal to the peace of the republic, and utterly subversive of those rights and interests for which the revolutionary fathers so freely offered their blood and treasure. Nothing is clearer from its history and its form, than that our government was established to "secure the blessings of Liberty," and was designed to be a democratic government, its grand chart and interpretation to be found in the Declaration of Independence.

The power which is to-day the controlling one in American politics exerts itself to make this, in effect, an aristocratic republic,—thus narrowing its base, and perverting its spirit, so to render it practically as offensive to freemen as monarchy itself. It is vain to deny that the Slave Power is, of itself, a pure and unmitigated despotism. Its aggressions have so multiplied within the last few years, that the coolest and most conservative minds are now deeply alarmed for the safety of the Union. Our forbearances and compromises with it have only spawed the way for new aggressions and more imperious demands. The repeal of the Missouri Compromise was a stride of despotic power that has poured a tide of evils on our country which no language can adequately describe, and no human mind fully comprehend. To break down that wall of Freedom, which guarded the immense territories of the Northwest from the direst of evils, was a crime of far greater magnitude than that which brought Charles the First to the block, or that which caused our fathers to take up arms against the king and parliament of England. The outrages which have occurred in Kansas since the passage of the Nebraska bill, indicate for what purpose that breach of faith was committed.—To invade the territory of a free people, to sack and burn their towns, to commit robberies and murders to destroy free speech and a free press, can only be the deeds of despotism. To this work of evil and violence, has been exerted the force of the National Administration.—To the approval of this violence and wrong has been committed the Convention which at Cincinnati nominated James Buchanan, to the Presidency of the United States, and the full force of the dominant party in this State. To the enforcement of this fraud, outrage and crime, has been given the influence of the present Administration.

Not content with endorsing the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the violence and injustice perpetrated in Kansas, not content with the adoption of measures prejudicial to good order and to the moral and material interests of the State, the administration of Samuel Wells has made war on the Supreme Court, that venerable citadel of Justice and Law around which cluster so many associations and interests, cherished as sacred against the violence of vandal hands that would beat it down for factious and party purposes. In wantonly and illegally removing an honest and capable judge for an honest opinion, the last Legislature and the present Executive of the State inflicted an irreparable blow on our judicial system and caused mischiefs whose consequences will be of lasting duration. We have that confidence in the cool judgment and moral sense of a majority of our fellow-citizens, which leads us to believe that they will set the authors of this high outrage with their unmistakable disapprobation.

To take efficient action against these State and National abuses and wrongs, the citizens of Maine, without distinction of party, and regardless of former differences of opinion, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise to the sectional and dangerous doctrines of the Cincinnati platform, to the extension of slavery in the territories of the United States, in favor of freedom in Kansas, of the preservation of the Union, and of restoring the government to the principles and policy of Washington and Jefferson, are requested to meet in Convention, Tuesday, July 8, in Deering Hall, Portland, at 10 o'clock A. M., to nominate a candidate for Governor and two candidates for Electors at large. The Convention will be composed of delegates according to the following basis of representation.

Each city, town, and organized plantation will be entitled to one delegate, and an additional delegate for every fifty votes, according to the Republican vote for Governor in 1855. A fraction of more than twenty five votes will be allowed one delegate.

☞ To Correspondents. Our friends who request us to publish original or selected articles, must be patient. We have a great press of political and news matter that ought to be published, and we must necessarily omit many things which we have a desire to insert. Communications are frequently rejected for no other reason than the impossibility of finding room for them.

The Journal is still dumb in regard to the Machiasport Straight Whig resolutions of 1854.

The "Grand Demonstration."

The Buchanaites held a "ratification" meeting on Monday evening (16th) at City Hall, which was intended to be a "grand demonstration" but fell a great ways short of that. By dint of an hour's bell-ringing and the music of a military band, they managed to get into the body of the house some three or four hundred men and boys, not over 250 of whom were "democrats"—the galleries being pretty well filled with persons who count themselves outside of the sham democratic party—The "enthusiasm" was of the most moderate kind known in political campaigns—as was indicated by the very feeble response made to a demand of the Chairman for "three cheers for Buchanan and Breckinridge" About twenty-five persons swung their hats, and put forth faint and scattering cheers. The attempt at enthusiasm was a decided failure, and had to be bolstered-up with "Yankee Doodle" by the band, which the boys did like.

The meeting was called to order by Nathan Weston, Jr. Esq., upon whose nomination, Leonard Jones, Esq., was called to the Chair—but as Mr. Jones didn't come at the call, Mr. Weston himself was chosen Chairman.

Mr. W. made some remarks upon taking the Chair, and we are sorry to say suffered himself to use exceedingly scurrilous, abusive and ungentlemanly language towards respectable clergymen, as well as to make some very false statements about the "disunion" intentions of the Republican party. The clergymen who have spoken in strong language from their pulpits against the recent outrages in Kansas, and in Congress, and who have justly, as we believe, intimated that the cause of those outrages is to be found in the action of the democratic party in overth owing the Missouri Compromise—these clergymen, Mr. Weston unreservedly denounced as "infamous scoundrels in the pulpit," and went so far as to call Rev Mr Allen of the Unitarian Church by name. They were infamous scoundrels when they did speak upon certain outrages, and "dumb dogs" when they ought to speak" upon certain other things which he referred to. When he heard these clergymen speak as they have spoken, "My God!" said he, "I wanted to speak in meeting." Political leaders and office-holders may say, if they please, that the clergymen of the North (who all speak as one man in denunciation of the recent outrages,) are mistaken in their views of the case but to call them "infamous scoundrels" is going rather farther than even partizan politicians will uphold. Nothing will be gained for Mr Buchanan, or for the democratic party, in that way. Respectable people are astonished and disgusted at such language. There are many persons who voted for Mr Weston last fall for Clerk of the Courts, from personal friendship or solicitation, who would scarcely have done so had they supposed it possible for him, after having secured his election, to use such language towards any of his political opponents.

We have not room to say much of the main speeches of the evening. Mr. Benj Wiggin, one of the Cincinnati delegates, gave an account of how he went first to Lancaster, Pa., saw Mr Buchanan—found him a very great man indeed,—larger than Calhoun, Clay or any other of the great men—weighing at least 250 pounds, and ready to answer any questions which he (Mr. Wiggin) desired to put—and from that moment he determined to consecrate what little power he had to his nomination. Mr W then gave some incidents of the Convention which did not appear to be very particularly interesting to anybody—and wound up by claiming Pennsylvania and New York, and all the States further off, for Buchanan,—but did not say anything about Maine, which so nearer home, and of which the people hereabouts know something.

He closed by a seductive appeal to Straight Whigs to come up to the help of the candidate who, he had just figured out, was dead sure of an election by an overwhelming majority—The band immediately struck up a tune, which sounded exceedingly like

"Get out of the way old Buchanan."

Hon James W Bradbury of Augusta, then spent some ten minutes in a very grandiloquent laudation of the immense services of Mr. Buchanan to the country, and of the "broad statesmanlike views" of the democratic candidates and politicians in contrast with the "small, narrow-minded" men of the Republican party. Those who know Mr. Bradbury, will smile somewhat at this. He didn't say anything about Kansas, or the nationalization of slavery, as this was too "narrow" a subject, we suppose, for his great mind.

Hon Samuel H Blake next took the stand, and in the very place where, two years ago, in an elaborate speech he denounced the repeal of the slavery restriction in Kansas as a gross violation of public faith, and an act which would kill Senator Douglas politically—he the same stand he declared last evening against any attempt to restore that restriction,—saying that there must be "non-intervention," with the institutions of the Territories—and declaring the nomination of James Buchanan, who declares the repeal of the Missouri Compromise to have been "an act of patriotic sacrifice," was "the very best that could have been made" This is enough to be said about Mr. Blake's speech.

The following are two of the resolutions passed at the public meeting of the citizens of Bangor, above referred to,—held Feb., 18, 1854, Hon. Geo. W. Pickering in the chair—and Hon. Samuel H. Blake making an elaborate speech of an hour's duration, in favor of the resolutions

Resolved, That the citizens of Bangor, have received with surprise and indignation the attempt avowed in the Bill introduced by Mr. Douglas of Illinois, to abrogate and nullify the solemn compact of 1820" &c.

"Resolved, That the Missouri Compromise is and was designed to be a permanent law of the land, and any attempt to repeal the same is a BREACH OF NATIONAL FAITH. We therefore most solemnly PROTEST against the passage of the Nebraska Bill now pending, or any other bill violating the conditions of the Compromise of 1820."

Mr. Blake's speech was not reported; but we find it stated that he said "That although "the Nebraska Bill was intended as a political "card to promote the chances of Senator Doug-"las for the Presidency, the [illegible] of Sena-"tor Houston to the bill, was much more likely to make him President."

Mr. Geo P. Sewall, Collector of the Customs next took the stand but we did not stop to hear him. We had read the Wilmot Proviso resolutions that he put through the Legislature, when he wanted free soil votes for his party but we didn't need to wait to be satisfied that he would now swallow the whole Buchanan platform, slavery and all. A man who could manage to hold office under Pierce would not be likely to stick at anything which the Cincinnati Convention required him to swallow.

We append certain resolutions which passed the democratic Legislature of Maine, in 1849, almost unanimously—George P. Sewall voting Yea:

Resolved, That we hereby declare, for ourselves and in behalf of the people of this State, our uncompromising opposition to the extension of Slavery into any territory of the United States, which is now free

Resolved, That in organizing governments for New Mexico and California, the introduction and existence of Slavery in those territories, should be POSITIVELY PROHIBITED BY ACT OF CONGRESS.

Resolved, That our Senators in Congress are hereby instructed and our Representatives requested, to vote against any act establishing Governments for said territories, that do not contain AN EXPRESS PROHIBITION OF SLAVERY.

Interesting to Maine Shipbuilders.

Considerable inquiry is made to know the intention of the following section of a bill recently reported in Congress, by Mr. T. J. D. Fuller of Maine. The bill is "for the revision of the revenue laws, providing for increase of pay of Custom House Officers" &c. One chapter relates to the registry of vessels, &c, and the second section is as follows.

"Citizens of the United States, sole owners of foreign-built vessels, shall have the right to have the bill of sale of such vessels recorded in the proper collection districts, and certify by the collector, in lieu of registering, and to engage in the foreign or coasting trade, upon complying with the laws of the United States in relation to master and crew, and the payment of an annual tonage duty, in advance, of one dollar per ton, United States measurement."

Is this a step towards admitting foreign-built vessels to free a participation in our coasting trade?

A Liberal Offer to the South.

Mr Black, of Pennsylvania, one of Buchanan's right hand men at the Cincinnati convention, in behalf of Mr. Buchanan and Pennsylvania, offered to the South, that when they came to secede, Pennsylvania would go with them. No little sensation of course was created by this declaration It was made by him in closing a speech of thanks to the Convention with a quotation from the Bible, which, in its application, imported that, in case of a dissolution of the Union, Mr Buchanan and Pennsylvania would go with the South, and of course taking with them the army and navy and public treasure of the country. This is, a correspondent of The New York Post suggests, the most liberal bid the South has ever yet received from any Northern statesmen. It completely takes down Douglas and his Central American slave empire, it is precisely what the nullifiers have for years been trying to get What part, if any, this pledge from Mr Black played in procuring the s range and hidden transition to Buchanan's ranks in the Convention on the morning of the nomination, remains to be disclosed. You may be assured that no further question will be made at the South about Buchanan's soundness on the Kansas issue. The nullifiers are now ready for disunion, as they were for the admission of Texas, at "the earliest practical period The reasons which embody the new declaration of fealty to the South, and which were quoted by Mr. Black, are the 16th and 17th of the 1st chapter of Ruth, reading as follows

"And Ruth said, Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee; for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge, thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

"Where thou diest, I will die, and there will I be buried, the Lord do so to me, and more also, if aught but death part thee and me."

POPULAR ENFORCEMENT OF JUSTICE. The Morning Express has seen several private letters from San Francisco, detailing events there connected with the murder of James King The Vigilance Committee, says one of these letters, has upwards of 5000 members on its muster roll. Casey, and Cora the murderer of Colonel Richardson, would certainly be executed by this committee on the morning of the 22d of May, the day after the departure of the steamer

The Vigilance Committee, moreover, had determined to sit in perpetuity until not only the city of San Francisco, but the entire State should be subjected to a thorough purification. They have prepared a "black list," embracing the names of about 180 of the most notorious murderers, thieves, and blacklegs, all of whom will be required to quit the country at short notice, or contemplate the contingency of summary judgment before the tribunals of Judge Lynch. Among their names are said to be those of Yankee Sullivan, the pugilist, and David Rodgers, who was at one time the Democratic Southern candidate for United States Senator.

The Vigilance Committee now extends throughout the State, and it is said every little town and hamlet now has its organization.

It is stated on good authority that all the officials of the State intend to resign their offices, and people are now inclined to look on the Vigilance Committee as the rulers and lawgivers.

A DIPLOMATIC ANECDOTE.—The Congress which so happily concluded its sittings in Paris a month ago, has been the occasion of a great number of stories, characteristic of the several gentlemen who composed it. A large majority of these anecdotes, relate to the Russian Count Orloff, who was by far the favorite in Paris of all the distinguished diplomats assembled at the office of foreign affairs. These anecdotes being "all the rage" just at this moment, it is not wonderful that the subject should have evoked others of a similar character, and, of course, somebody has something to tell of Talleyrand, confessedly the greatest diplomatist of his day. One story is told of this famous minister, which I never saw in print, and which is as characteristic as amusing. During a rush to Paris, which occurred in 1815, consequent upon the second restoration of the Bourbons, Prince Talleyrand was in the habit of receiving every evening at his hotel the elite of society then in Paris.—During the deliberations of the Congress of that period, Talleyrand's house was a sort of neutral ground upon which the most discordant elements were in the habit of meeting on friendly terms. One evening chance placed at the same whist table, the Count Rov, the Marquis d'Allgre, Baron Rothschild and Talleyrand himself, who remarked that the "guerre mendiante of France were thus brought together at the same table!" (The pun is untranslatable.) In the course of the game, the Marquis d'Allgre, who, as is well known, was exceedingly miserly, let fall, by accident, a piece of gold, from the pile before him The coin rolled upon the carpet beneath the table. This trifling occurrence might have escaped the attention of the other gentlemen, had not the Marquis neglected his play, to cast his glances beneath the table and shown evident uneasiness. Such was his distraction of manner, that, finally, his partner, Baron Rothschild, exclaimed

"Why, M le Marquis, hearts are called and you play a diamond!"

"True enough," replied the Marquis, somewhat confused, "but I have lost something drop." And this time thrusting back his chair, he actually stooped and felt about the floor under the table.

"Wait a moment, Marquis," said Talleyrand very coolly—and selecting, at hazard, one of the bank notes lying before him, the Prince rolled it up between his fingers, lit it at the chandelier, and leaning down beside M. d'Allgre, added—"I will give you a light!"

The lesson was a good one, and possessed, in the eyes of M. d'Allgre, the still greater merit of having cost him nothing—for he found his missing Louis

At the end of the game the Prince arose from the table, and found himself face to face with a gentleman who squinted terribly and whom Talleyrand detested

"Ah, Prince," said the gentleman, "how are affairs getting on?"

"As you see," replied Talleyrand, with marked emphasis

The other asked the puzzling old diplomat no more questions that evening.—Cor N. Y. Express.

SUBURBAN LEAP.—On Monday afternoon, a train of cars on the Eastern Railroad stopped at one of the stations on the line, when a dog entered the cars, apparently desirous of taking a hasty peep at the passengers Suddenly the conductor gave the signal of all right, and the train started off at a rapid rate, both doors of the car in which was the dog being closed at the starting The dog, finding the cars in motion, became alarmed, and rushed wildly from one door to the other, trying to get out, but finding all means of egress cut off, he suddenly sprang into the lap of a passenger and jumped out of an open window. The train was going very rapidly, and the last seen of the dog he was rolling down an embankment, apparently however, uninjured by his leap.—Traveller.

CUTTING IT THIN.—The full abstract of Senator Hamlin's remarks on tendering his resignation as Chairman of the Committee on Commerce, which we received by telegraph and published yesterday morning, appears in the Argus but short of its fair proportions, thus

"SENATE.—Mr Hamlin rose and asked to be excused from serving as chairman of the committee on commerce

The motion to excuse was agreed to."

When the most unwelcome tidings comes along the wires, that their own Senator Hamlin withdraws from the border ruffian ranks and unites formally with the friends of freedom, the Argus hopes to conceal the dread news from its readers for a day or two!—Fort Adv.

CONSUMPTION IN AN ARMY.—A writer in the Crimea says.

"The army has a fine appetite, it manages to consume 250 000 lbs barley, 250,000 pounds hay, and 90,000 lbs of bread per diem, and to eat up about 3000 bullocks and 15 000 or 18,000 sheep per month, besides their pickings of potted cheap, preserved vegetables, private stores, poultry, geese, turkeys and game, washed down with floods of wine and spirits, and oceans of rum."

A valuable horse, "Abdallah Chief," belonging to Austin Wales, and others, of Detroit, broke one of his legs recently, in springing up after rolling. He was bred by R. C. Roe, of Orange county, who sold him for $2 000 Mr. W. a few weeks since was offered $3,000 for him He was valued at $4 000, and was deemed one of the most beautiful animals in the country After his leg was found to be broken, he was killed

MEXICAN AND EUROPEAN MATTERS. (Tribune Correspondence) Intelligence from Mexico indicates that much alarm is felt by the government respecting the Spanish expedition, and foreshadows an application for the protection of the United States Southern members in Congress suggest the granting of protection on condition of a cession to the United States of the Tehuantepec route, with the encumbrance at territory.

Professor Humphrey's SPECIFIC Homœopathic Medicine

.....FOR.....

Families, Travelers, and others

THESE Medicines have been carefully prepared, with a view of supplying families and others with Specific Remedies against all the more common diseases which occur in every day life The list includes not only remedies for all the more common diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Headaches, Derangements of the Stomach, Fever, Worm Complaints, Diarrhœa, &c, but also for those more sudden and violent diseases which require to be met on the spur of the moment, such as Cramp, Cholera, Dysentery, Inflammation &c, for whose treatment it is very important always to have the proper remedies at hand. There are also remedies for those more delicate Female derangements which a lady finds it so difficult to disclose, but yet a freedom from which contributes so much to the happiness and enjoyment of life

These Medicines are prepared in the form of large Sugar Pellets, one of which is sufficient for the largest dose and put up in boxes properly labelled Each box contains 20 or 40 Pellets, and 15 boxes, for the different kinds, are enclosed in a case, accompanied with a small Manual of Book of Directions, giving a concise description of the diseases treated, and directions for giving the medicines, diet, &c., necessary for a cure Cases also, containing four or six of the small boxes, are put up, which may be supplied with any of the different kinds at the option of the purchaser

The advantages of Specific Homœopathic Medicines,—In prescribing other Homœopathic Medicines a doctor, a nurse, or family will be recommended for a cough, a headache, diarrhœa, or fever; and much care, study, and determination is required to select the proper ones. But here you have a Specific Remedy for each particular disease, and hence are able to use them with benefit and precision without that labor and study which the business man or invalid, is so perplexing and annoying, and consequently distressing. The advantages are so obvious as to commend them to all.

Prepared by Dr. F. HUMPHREY, Auburn, N.Y., and sold by C. B. WALKER, Agent for Maine, at 24 Main street.

LATER FROM EUROPE.
ARRIVAL OF THE

ARAGO
AT NEW YORK.

Speculations about War between England and the United States.

NEW YORK, June 17

The Steamer Arago arrived at her dock at 10 o'clock She brings Havre and Southampton dates to the 4th She brought 175 passengers among whom was Mr. Fillmore, from Havre to Lowes He would take passage in the Atlantic, June 11th.

The excitement in reference to the American question was increasing.

The Times says the recognition of Walker, is not necessarily to be followed by war although a greatly embittered the dispute.

The English government will act with forbearance it Mr Crampton is dismissed, and will probably assume a temporizing policy until after the Presidential election

Some of the journals advocate a vigorous policy on the part of England, but the majority counsel firmness with conciliation

The Times also says the dismissal of Mr Dallas must follow immediately on that of Mr. Crampton

The Daily News reiterates the hopes of the Times as to the preservation of peace, and considers that war should take place it would only be looked at in the light of a civil one—The other leading morning journals view the matter in the same light.

Lat est The London Times of the 4th says that upon further information received, it considered that danger of war was daily becoming more imminent, while the Daily News adheres to the improbability of such an event

Liverpool Breadstuffs Market—Richardson, Spence & Co report a continuance of very fine weather but nevertheless wheat selling at 5s a 10s advance for inferior, better descriptions unchanged Flour in improved demand at Friday's rates. White corn in little request at 2s a 2s 6d, yellow and mixed do.

NEW YORK, 17th.

The screw steamer Alma, from Havre, via Cowes She left port one day ahead of the Arago, which vessel passed her at anchor off Havre with something wrong in her machinery. She probably brings nothing later.

Republican National Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, June 17

The Convention was called to order at half past 11 Hon Robert Emmett, of New York, was elected temporary Chairman The Rev Mr Eells delegate was received with three cheers

Mr Emmett, on taking the chair, said he had been for 10 years connected with the Democracy until the party had left the only platform on which he could stand Personally, he admired Mr Buchanan, but politically he was decidedly opposed to him, as well as to the platform on which he stood He, Mr Emmett, had given to the adhesion to the Buffalo platform, He rejoiced then in being a Freesoiler. He was proud of being so still He alluded to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, to the difficulties and sufferings in Kansas that followed that act and in conclusion invoked the decrees to put forth their efforts to strangle the Border Ruffian monster that threatens to involve the country in ruin.

Mr Emmett's address was frequently interrupted with applause.

G G Fogg of New Hampshire, and Thos. Mitchell of Ohio, were appointed temporary Secretaries

The Committee on Credentials was then announced, and a resolution adopted providing a committee on Platform and declaring that no delegate be had until a Platform is adopted.

A discussion ensued on the propriety of admitting outsiders, and the Convention adjourned until 9 o'clock P M.

AFTERNOON

Reports from committees being announced as first in order, the committee on permanent organization reported the following as officers

President—HENRY S. LANE of Indiana

Vice Presidents—A P Marshall, Maine, Amos Tuck N H, C F Adams, Mass, H. Carpenter Vermont, C F Cleaveland, Conn, J Bell Rockwell R I., John A King, New York, J. C Hornblower, N J, J. Ritner, Pa, R. P. Spaulding, Ohio, J Dean Ind; W B. Archer, Ill R. S. Bingham, Mich, W D McKnight, Wisconsin, F Springer, Iowa R. Folger, California S. Bate, Delaware P J Cobb, Md, C Rye, Virginia, G D Blackett, Ky; Jacob Bigelow, Dist. Columbia, ——— Ramsey, Minnesota, P E Pomeroy, Kansas, H. S. Bennett, Nebraska.

And twenty four Secretaries.

A committee consisting of E C Litchfield Ohio, G W, Patterson of N Y and S A. Wallace of Pa was appointed to conduct the ex-President to the chair

When Mr Lane went upon the platform, three cheers were given for the Hoosier State. He then addressed the Convention as follows

Friends of Freedom—Friends of Freemen—The honor you have conferred upon me far transcends any merits of mine. For the honor you have conferred on the State I represent, from my heart I thank you. The time—the place—the event—all conspire to render it an occasion of deep interest. The anniversary of Bunker Hill, shall be the anniversary of the birth of freedom once again our Republic. This day inaugurates a new era in our history—the regeneration and independence of the North We are called on to day to lay down old party predilections, and sacrifice all our feelings on minor topics, to the great love of freedom I was once a follower of the gallant Clay but when the Nebraska swindle was perpetrated my love for old time was laid beside the Clay patriot in the grave, and I became an advocate of liberty

The great question now before us is—Shall Kansas be admitted as a Free State." To this point we must bend all our energies. We are told it is revolutionary. It is false. To attempt to enforce slavery in that Territory by fraud and illegal means is revolutionary.

The President then reviewed the history of the Nebraska Bill, and declared the agitation resulting from it had not been brought on by the North, but had been forced upon her by the South In eloquent terms he then resurrected to the scenes of riot and bloodshed in Kansas, and left it to the action of the Convention to say whether these things should longer exists. The hand of Kansas, written in the blood of her dead to the sacrifice of free institutions, must be swept away and the land preserved from the aggressive encroachments of slavery. He referred to the murder of Barber, and said such acts were the precursors of a sweeping and bloody revolution. He spoke of the penalties imposed on freemen who dared to read or circulate free soil documents in Kansas The evidence would show the illegal vile means that had been taken to secure the enactment of those laws, and they should be swept away without hesitation or reserve. These things have to be met now. The Democracy had only a few days since, in that beautiful platform of theirs—which it would be no flattery to compare to the Sermon on the Mount—declared their determination not to renew the slavery agitation.

They had done this in the year of the birth of the present administration. He would say a few words concerning the standard bearer of that Convention, who with his unsurpassed antecedents, stood forth as the exponent of that platform

Mr. Buchanan's career was then reviewed and allusion made to the times when he was accustomed to lead the federal forces on to victory. Now he was a denouncer, a federal Democrat, an anti-war Democrat—from such Democracy good Lord deliver us. We are told, that were Henry Clay living he would now be with the South. This was a slander over his grave, more deadly than any thing had been breathed against him while living. If he was now on earth he would be with the Republicans, for his whole course has shown that his great heart revolted at oppression every where, and in every case sympathized with the down trodden and oppressed

He rendered an eloquent tribute to the memory of Mr Clay, and closed with an earnest appeal to the Convention to unite harmoniously on a candidate who could lead them on to peace honored victory

During the address, frequent and enthusiastic applause marked the enthusiasm of the convention

The committee on credentials reported in part on names of unobjected delegates.

The committee also reported in favor of calling by States in balloting—the chairman of each delegation to report the vote—each State to cast three times its electoral vote, but not to cast in any instance more votes than it had absolute representatives in the convention. Kansas to be allowed to vote as an electoral State. The report was adopted.

A motion was made and adopted, that Henry Wilson of Mass be requested to address the Convention.

Mr. Wilson not being present, a similar invitation was extended to Caleb B. Smith, of Ohio. Mr Smith said he could not in justice to the gallant State to which he belonged, refuse to occupy the attention of the Convention a brief time

After speeches from Messrs. Smith, Lovejoy and Wilson, the Convention adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

From Kansas—Rumored Arrangements for expelling the Free State Men.

The Washington correspondent of the Commercial Advertiser, writes

A gentleman connected with the government service on the borders of Kansas, has just arrived here, and his representations of the actual state of things is alarming. He reports that there is fighting in all the inhabited parts of the territory

The bands of marauders and murderers called "Law and Order men, "Kickapoo Rangers," &c, are roving about the territory killing the unresisting and stealing or destroying all the property that is found unprotected

The free soil settlers rally in small bands for defence, but with little hope of success in opposition to the United States and territorial authorities, and the whole power of the State of Missouri.

But the most important fact mentioned by him is that at least 4 or 5000 men are now being organized and armed in Missouri for the purpose of descent upon Kansas, and with the determination to drive out of the territory all the free soilers. "They will meet with little resistance, and expect soon at all from the Governor or from the United States

They do not think that Col Sumner will dare to interfere even if so ordered, and if he does they will drive him out of the territory along with his handful of men.

They expect the President to withdraw these troops and to send no more, and that is distinctly the course which the President has been advised within the last few days to take, by the friends of the Atchison party, not only of Missouri, but of other slaveholding States For Southern Senators, very well known as ultra and violent in their opinions on this subject, have earnestly pressed the President to withdraw all the United States troops from Kansas, and leave the difficulty to be settled by the parties concerned Should this course be adopted, or what is the same thing, if the troops, insufficient as they are in numbers, should take no decided part, the Missourians and their Southern allies under the command of Major Forch will soon have exclusive possession of the Territory.

WASHINGTON, 17th

No new military orders have recently been issued applicable to Kansas. The Executive department have just restrained to the authorities of that territory that there must be strict compliance with the programme of May last.

The new national steamer Minnesota leaves here in two weeks for Philadelphia, to receive rigging and armament

Capt. Fatte writes to the Republican of this city from Kansas city the 12th inst, that comparative quiet reigns in the territory

The United States troops having disbanded the unlawful military bodies and in cases where they have reassembled, taken their arms from them Consequently there is no fighting going on, and if nothing unlooked for occurs to derange the present state of affairs, peace will soon ensue

ST LOUIS, June 17th

The extensive Rectifying Establishment of Jansemon Smith, & Co., together with the large Commission House of Gilman & Berthold & Barmond & Co., were destroyed by fire this evening. The buildings belonged to Col. Brant and R. A. Sarpy, and were insured to the full value

The origin of the fire is unknown.

Arrest of a Russian Officer.

NEW YORK, 17th inst

A Mr Liedenfeldt, who has been making contracts in this city in behalf of the Russian Government, for supplies of arms and ammunition, has been arrested at the instance of Mr J. R. Perkins, a contractor, and on the ground that he was an alien and about to leave the country.

[Large democratic ratification meetings were held last evening at Boston and Concord, NH., at which the Cincinnati platform was swallowed without hesitation, and Pierce's administration very consistently endorsed. At Boston they represented the Sumner outrage as a mere "personal" affair, and denounced any attempt to "throw odium on the democratic party by raising the assault to the dignity of a principle involving freedom of speech." Beating a Senator almost to death for words uttered in debate, is not, then, an attack upon freedom of speech, in the view of even northern democrats! These Bostonianites could not come much nearer to justifying the outrage]

Republican National Convention

The special correspondent of the Boston Journal sends the following by telegraph, June, 16th

In the Philadelphia Convention, the votes of the New England delegation, with the exception of a few instructed to vote for Sumner from Massachusetts, those of the Rhode Island delegates who are for McLean, will be likely to be thrown for Fremont. The New York delegation will give nearly a united vote for Fremont, unless Seward first receives a complimentary ballot. Delaware and New Jersey are for Stockton, the Kentucky delegates for Clay, and Missouri again for Fremont. California for Fremont.

Judge McLean has many warm friends, who will make an earnest effort in his behalf New Jersey and Pennsylvania are his strongholds, but Wilmot says Pennsylvania can only be carried by an outside pressure, and so that the strongest man outside is the best for them—Banks is here, ditto Burlingame, Banks is for Fremont for President, and against his own nomination for either place.

Prior to the meeting of the Convention on the 17th inst, the relative position of candidates may be greatly changed. But after Banks and Seward shall have been withdrawn by their friends, the indications are that Fremont will receive somewhere from 250 to 300 votes, McLean from 150 to 200, Chase from 50 to 75, and Stockton from 20 to 50 There are several Fillmore men delegated to the Convention from Indiana and Illinois, such as Sigler, Black, Peters, Beard, &c. They are not disposed to make any trouble, but having given up all hopes of success w th Fillmore and Donelson, are now desirous of uniting the free spirit of the North with as many from the South as can be induced to join with them, to overturn the present administration

The position of the leading Metropolitan papers in favor of Fremont, has served to make him distance the most of his competitors It was not surprising that the Evening Post should advocate his claims, but when Mr Seward's staunch friends, the Times and Tribune, came to his support, they brought to him hosts of friends. And finally the Herald, with its immense circulation and great influence among an entirely opposite class of people, comes also to the rescue If nominated, his chances of success seem to be very good.

New York Convention.

NEW YORK, June 16 The Bolters' meeting, after making the nominations, passed strong anti-Nebraska resolutions

Various addresses were made, one by Mr Perrin, formerly of Tennessee, who acted as a self-appointed delegate from that State. He explained that the entire action of the seceders was a sham and Fillmore that that was the object of the delegations from New Jersey in attending the Convention, that they had as good right to play games as the men who voted for Banks

FATAL SHIPWRECK The ship Pallas, from Cork for Quebec, with 120 passengers, was wrecked near the coast of Cape Breton, on the 30th May, and 72 lives lost by the passengers rushing into the boats and swamping them. The remainder were saved by boats from the island, and sent in a vessel to Quebec. The loss of the Pallas was caused by a disagreement of her compasses

P. L. Association, Notice.
THE bills for rafting up to June 1st are made up, and sixty cents per thousand assessed, and by an article of the by laws a discount of six per cent. will be made on all amounts paid in cash at the Treasurer's office before the twentieth day of the month, and of three per cent on all amounts paid after that and before the 10th day of next month

As the logs will soon be out of the booms and the security for boomage is therefore precarious, the Directors have instructed the Treasurer to obtain payment or security immediately, and when necessary to require security before logs are delivered By the by-laws all logs on which the boomage has not been paid are to be advertised for sale in September, so the man who neglects to pay and get his discount, will lose twenty-five per cent.

OFFICE of the Commissioner of Lotteries.—Baltimore, April 18 1856 The undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the Drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Drawings are Gross Frauds, that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said Lottery a fraud, having neither legal or pretensative power, and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co, Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors and all Lotteries who shall profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. France & Co, as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore There are, however, forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive license under him through the office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 8, 1856

Messrs C & J Marshall—Gentlemen. At the request of your Agent in Baltimore, in regard to our opinion and experience of your copper coated spikes, we, without hesitation, say we believe them the best substitute for copper yet introduced and better fastening for ships, inasmuch as you have the strength of iron with the preservative qualities of copper

We have used some of your Spikes in old vessels as a substitute for copper, and have had occasion to draw them out a year afterwards, and found them with the coating as firm as when they were driven, and with no appearance of oxidation
